RENTERS RESPONSIBILITIES STILLWATER PAVILION

1. Pick up the keys at the Extension Office before 5pm on Friday. You may enter the Fairgrounds only on the days rented. Return the keys by noon the following Monday. There is a drop box inside the North entrance of the courthouse. A $10 fee will be assessed for each day beyond this time that the keys have not been returned.
2. The Stillwater Extension Office acts only as the scheduling agent for the Pavilion and is not responsible for any of the procedures or problems that arise with the rental of the building and/or grounds.
3. Notify the Stillwater Extension Office if you notice any problems in the facility before you move in.
4. Stillwater County will not be liable for equipment or food left unattended at the Pavilion.
5. Damages must be repaired within 48 hours. It will be up to the group using the building to make satisfactory repairs (equal to the original installation). If repairs are not made, that individual or group signing the contract will not be allowed future use of the facility and will be billed for repairs by repairman of our choice. This includes items that have been stolen from the Pavilion, including but not limited to tables and chairs.
6. The County agrees to furnish supplies such as hand soap, paper towels, and toilet tissue for the bathrooms. You are required to furnish your own dish soap, dish cloths, and dish towels.
7. Should any of the policies be abused, a base charge of $75.00 will be assessed against the organization or individual in charge of the event or use. Serious consideration with a sizeable down payment charge, will be charged for future functions by the group or individual.
8. The security for the fairgrounds is up to the group using the facilities. Stillwater County does not assume responsibility for theft or damage to personal property or exhibits while used by an individual or group. Police Protection may be required by the County Commissioners on a case-by-case basis.
9. If any vandalism is detected during the process of cleaning you will be notified and will be expected to pay for damages. YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR YOUR POSSESSIONS AND GUESTS.
10. If all cleaning procedures are not followed YOU WILL BE BILLED FOR ADDITIONAL CLEANING CHARGES.

LIQUOR POLICY: State law prohibits the sale of beer, wine, or hard liquor without proper license in the facilities at the fairgrounds in Columbus. The Bottle Club Law and beer and table wine license provides for the use of liquor at public functions.

- OPTION A: A private function not open to the public can have beer, wine, and hard liquor without license. If advertised and open to anyone who comes (public) this does not apply.
- OPTION B: The Bottle Club Law does not allow the BYOB (Bring Your Own Bottle) at Public Functions. Tickets sold for music, dinners, general admission, etc., prohibit the use of hard liquor furnished by guests and the sponsoring group providing a set-up (glasses & ice).
- OPTION C: A license to sell hard liquor can be obtained by contacting a tavern, which has purchased a catering endorsement.
- OPTION D: A beer and table wine license can be obtained by submitting application. The application must be in Helena 10 days prior to the event. The application can be found on the MT Department of Revenue website. <http://revenue.mt.gov/formsandresources/downloadable-forms/liquor-licensing.incp.x>

The Stillwater Pavilion is county property and we would appreciate it if each renter would take care of it as if it was his or her own. If you have any questions or problems, please call the County Commissioners at 322-8010 during normal business hours.
